

WEBINAR

Managing IT Risk and Compliance in a Remote Work Environment

Speakers

Moderator

Anaud Ganpaul

Director, Product Marketing
Resolver

Peter Nguyen

General Counsel
Resolver

Riley Tighe

Product Manager, IT Risk &
Compliance | Resolver

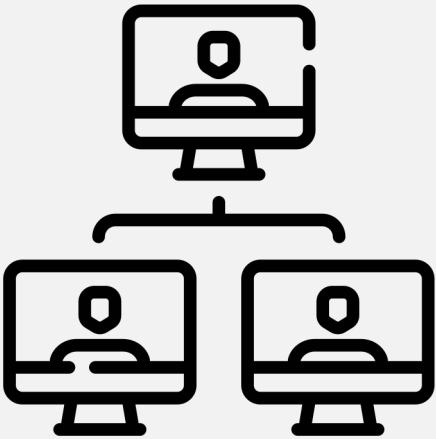

Pandemic risk was not top of mind for most companies

Agenda

- Current state of IT post-COVID
- The Next Risk: Your Information Security certifications
- Practical tips for using technology to manage IT remotely

Biggest Impact of COVID-19

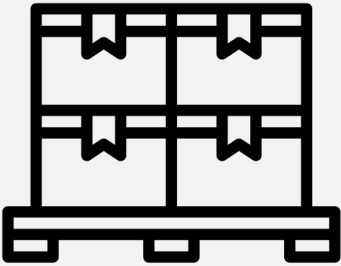

Mobilizing a Remote Workforce

Customer Demand Shock

Financial Pressure

Supply Chain Destabilization

Risk of working from home

01 | Using outdated computers

04 | Lack of security awareness with some software

02 | Possible data leak

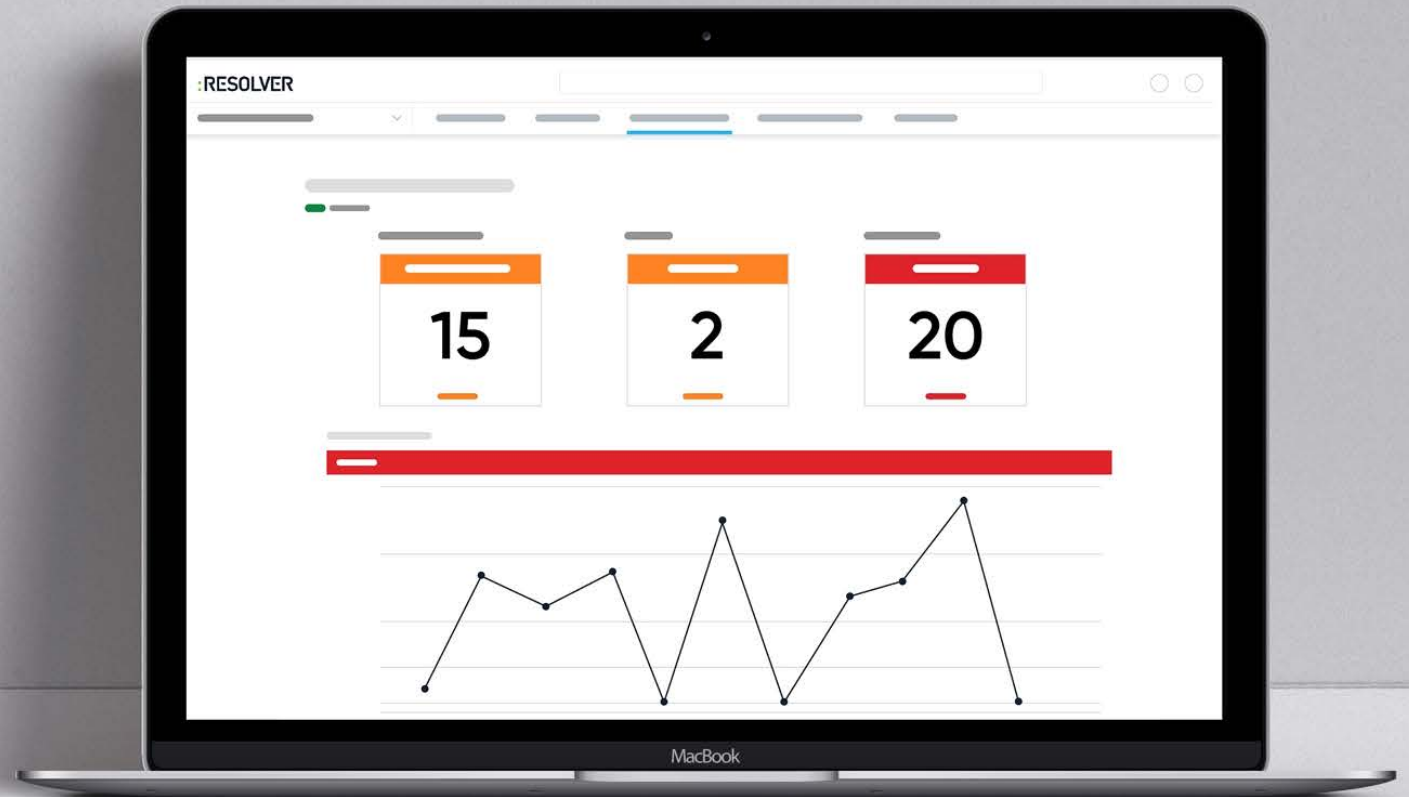

05 | Working in an unfamiliar setting

03 | Accessing the organization's network insecurely

InfoSec Certifications and Compliance

- Why certifications are important to customers and prospects
- How certifications are used in contracts
- New risk: Impact of not achieving annual certification by your deadline

IT Compliance Demo

Summary

- Remote work has been the biggest change for organizations due to COVID-19
- Managing a new set of IT risks makes it too easy to overlook upcoming IT certifications
- Resolver's IT Risk and Compliance solution helps remote work teams achieve certifications

Thank You!

info@resolver.com | www.resolver.com